NEW ADDITIONS TO OUR LIBRARY!

Check these out! The MB99s library is located upstairs in the EAA hangar. Laura Barnett, our marvelous librarian, is always available to assist.

For the Love of Flying: The Story of Laurentian Air Services by Danielle Metcalfe-Chenail. For the Love of Flying tells the story of Laurentian Air Services and its subsidiaries, Air Scheffer-ville, Delay River Outfitters and more. Drawing on extensive research and interviews with Laurentian's owners, pilots and ground crew, author Metcalfe-Chenail explores this innovative company's colorful 60-year history from its founding in 1936 with biplanes through the 1990s when it operated twin-engine turboprops. Donated by Joanne Nissen, January 2011.

She Flew Bombers: From the Factories to the Bases During World War II by Jeane Slone. This historical novel is based entirely on fact. The characters have been fictionalized. She Flew Bombers is a fascinating account of one woman's love of flying and her involvement with the Women Airforce Service Pilots (WASPs) during World War II. Anyone interested in aviation history, women's history, or the World War II "war effort" will appreciate Slone's careful research, as well as her ability to bring this little-known aspect of US history to life so vividly. Donated by Kay Harmon, January 2011.

Flying for Her Country: The American and Soviet Women Military Pilots of World War II by Amy Goodpaster Strebe. Nicole Malachowski writes: "In reading Flying for Her Country, I was humbly reminded of the debt of gratitude I owe to these courageous women pilots....In telling the story of these World War II heroes, Amy Goodpaster Strebe skillfully reminds us that women love their country too, and some of us choose to show it by wearing our nation's uniform." Donated by Joanne Nissen, January 2011.

Prop Wash By Alice Talnack

The past few months we have asked chapter members questions about their flying experiences to update our membership biographies. We have asked, “What got you into flying?”, “What did you learn from that flying experience?”, and “How did you know you could fly?” This month, Valentine’s month, it seems appropriate to ask, “What do you love about flying?” We can all understand this question. It is that moment when, after performing all of the details for flight, training, maintenance, checklists, communications, landings, etc., you at some point breathe and say to yourself “I love to fly !” Be ready to share your love of flight at our next meeting.

As I mentioned at our last meeting, the MB99s volunteered to host a panel discussion on parachute activities at the WVI airport. This panel is set up for February 16th, our regular meeting date, at 7:00 pm in the EAA hangar. We have invited other organizations and tenants to attend this discussion.

For the convenience of our panelists and guests we will reverse the usual agenda, have the panel at 7:00pm and our MB99s general business meeting at 8:00pm or when the panel discussion concludes. Thanks to Dena Taylor for setting this panel up for all of us. Any questions, feel free to call me at 831-332-3549.

“We who fly do so for the love of flying. We are alive in the air with the miracle that lies in our hands and beneath our feet.” --Cecil Day Lewis
